Competition for All-America hot

OMAHA (UPI) — Oklahoma State, Arizona and Southern California snared the most places on the 1961 college All-America baseball squad announced Tuesday

Oklahoma State placed one player on each of the first two teams and two on the third, in selections of the American Association Of College Baseball Coaches, sponsored by Wheaties Sports Federation

Arizona had one player on the first team and two on the second, and Southern Cal had one each on the first and second teams

Competition for berths on the squad was described by the raters as the hottest in years Ten schools were represented on the first team, which boasts a composite batting average of 404.

Freehan Hits .485

Michigan's sophomore catcher Bill Freehan, who hit 485, and two hard-hitting outfielders led the selections. They are Joe Nossek, hitting .468 for Ohio University, and Jim Mooring a 427 hitter from the University of North Carolina. Both already have drawn five-figure bonuses from major league teams

The third first-team outfield selection is Chuck Knutson of the University of Texas a 382 hitter who clouted 10 home runs

Competition was so tight that Jake Gibbs of Mississippi, a first-team choice at third base in 1960 dropped to the third team this season Pete Hall a 397 hitter from Rutgers, replaced Gibbs on the first team

Joining Hall in the infield are Willie Ryan of Southern Cal at first base, Charlie Shoemaker of Arizona at second and Western Michigan's Frank Quilici at shortstop.

Wixson Is Picked

First team pitchers are Jim Wixson of Oklahoma State who won 11 straight victories before losing, 4-2, to Southern Cal in the NCAA College World Series and Bill Faul, a strikeout artist from the University of Cincinnati

Faul led the nation with 133 strikeouts this year and had the highest single game strikeout production for a major college baseball with 24.

The second-team lineup

Joe Skaisgir Arizona, 1b Bruce Andrew, Oklahoma State 2b Richard Parsons Kentucky ss Edward Tekavec West Virginia 3b, Tom Riley Michigan State 1b Bill Barraclough Arizona cf Gale Weidner Colorado rf Larry Himes, Southern Cal catcher and Joe Clement Connecticut and Charles Davis Navy pitchers

The third team

Wayne Knapp Minnesota 1b Jack Dull, Florida State 2b Don Wallace, Oklahoma State ss Jake Gibbs Mississippi 3b Bill Hess, Ohio State lf John Koehler, Colorado State cf Gene Orf Missouri, rf Ray Bond Oklahoma State catcher and Allen Smith, Louisana State and John Rebelo, California pitchers

Youth hunting bill opposed

LINCOLN (UPI)—A bill which would require junior hunting permits for youngsters 12 to 16 years of age was debated again in the legislature Tuesday afternoon but the measure again failed to muster very much strength

The senators voted, 24-11, to allow Sen Marvin Lautenschlager of Grand Island to withdraw his request for reconsideration of an earlier decision to kill the bill LB582

Lautenschlager said he favors proper education of young hunters but said he could not get those with opposing views to agree to amendments

Leading the effort for favorable action was Sen W H Hasebroock of West Point who described the bill as 'very important"

He said similar laws in other states have worked out well and have resulted in cutting down hunting accidents

Hasebrook said the measure had the support of the Boy Scouts 4-H FFA Izaak Walton League the director of the Nebraska Safety Council the Department of Agriculture and Governor Morrison

Lincoln standout not a graduate

LINCOLN (UPI) - Bobby Williams of Lincoln High School one of the state's top athletes apparently will not gain admission this fall to the University of Nebraska

Lincoln High officials said Williams was given a certificate of attendance and not a diploma

Lincoln High has a special education program for students who are not qualified for regular high school courses Placement in these categories is determined by a pre-high school test

School officials said the football basketball and track standout was enrolled in the special education program

Dad's Day may be happy for Sneads

Today's Sport Parade
(Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.)
By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International

BIRMINGHAM, Mich. (UPI) — Sunday could be a big day for young Jack Snead.

After all, it is Father's Day. And he feels that maybe he'll be the good luck charm which his dad has been missing up to now in the U.S. Open golf championship

His dad, incidently, is that longtime fairway favorite known as "Slammin' Sammy" Snead.

Snead's misfortunes in the Open are one of golf's greatest legends. It's a familiar tale how he has been second on four different occasions and another time kicked it completely away with a tragic eight on the final hole.

"Maybe I'll be the good luck he's needed," smiles 16-year-old Jack who is a carbon copy of his father except that he has hair This is the first time I've ever been to the Open and it's a good time for Dad to win it"

Gets Much Support

Young Jack gets a lot of support in the locker room at Oakland Hills Country Club where the Open starts Thursday His dad is 49 but 'Old Sam" is as strong as a bull, is playing with ageless skill and has won the last three consecutive tournaments in which he has played

"You can't count Sam out for another 10 years," marveled four-time British Open champion Peter Thomson who chased Snead with utter futility in the recent International golf championship as Sam added that to his recent Greenbrier and Las Vegas victories 'He's playing better than ever"

Young Jack beams at these accolades and cautiously crosses his fingers The thing that worries him because they worry Sam — is those short putts

Runs In Family

"I guess it runs in the family" he smiled "The yips seem to be a trait of all us Sneads"

Jack knows He shoots in the mid-70's and was the number one man on the Valley High School golf team back in Hot Springs Va the same school where Sam learned to read write and arithmetic all that money he has won on golf courses around the world Young Snead like his dad before him also plays on the football team But while Sam was a halfback Jack is an end

I'm not quite really sure what I want to do yet," says Jack, parrying questions as to his vocational aspirations

Certainly it would be a tough chore to fill his father's famous brogans because Sam has won such coveted divot titles as the Masters British Open and just about everything else you can name except the U S Open

I can hit the ball about as far as Dad can he grins shyly in making a statement few can match But after all I'm as big as he is'

"Outshoots" Old Man

At 5 feet 11 inches and 188 pounds Jack is as big as his famed father and he has on at least one occasion outshot' the old man

That was on our last hunting trip Jack recounted I got two deer and a wild turkey Dad only brought down one deer and one turkey

Such is the feverish pace of Sam's life and travels when he hits the pro tour that they seldom have an opportunity to play together But they have teamed up in pro-amateur events in Virginia and West Virginia

I still got a long way to go to get anywhere near him though" Jack says with his pride in his dad showing plainly But he'd have just about everything if he can win this one And as I said I hope I'm the good luck charm he needs'

Maybe so" Sam grinned "Ah sure does hope so"

So do a lot of people in the golfing world Victory here for the Slammer would put the finest touches to a fabulous career It just might make Old Dad" Snead the father of the year come Sunday morning

Disappointed boys get credit for hits

Last night there were two very disappointed boys. Jerry 12, and Gary, 11, sons of Mr and Mrs Virgil Griepenstroh of 803 North 10th, had just finished reading the News-Press. When the paper arrived they tore it open to the sports section expecting to find their names credited with home runs. Instead, Jerry found his two three-run homers given to Beryl Thomas and Gary discovered that his grand slam blow was only mentioned as a single.

Undaunted, however, by this frustration, they told their mother, who, in turn, notified this sports writer of his unforgivable error. Now to give credit where credit is due.

Jerry hit three-run circuit clouts in the first and second innings, and he later walked in the second frame just before his brother, Gary, poked a grand slammer The boys' hits were the reason Manewal Chev-Cad tromped the Pla-Mor peewees 17-5

However, not only was The News-Press in bad with the mother of the two boys, but also with the sponsor of the team, Cecil Manewal Mr Manewal takes an interest in his team, and recently it has been divulged why the Manewal boys hit the long ball. For each homer hitter, Mr Manewal presents a dollar bill What incentive!

USC, Oklahoma in NCAA finale

OMAHA (UPI) — Southern California and Oklahoma State, the pre-tourney favorites, meet tonight in a game which could decide the national collegiate baseball championship

Oklahoma State's scrapping Cowboys could force a sudden death showdown Thursday night by beating the Trojans tonight But Southern Cal, unbeaten in the double - elimination NCAA tourney, could claim an unprecedented third national title with a victory

They have already beaten the Cowpokes from Oklahoma State once—4-2 in a third-round thriller decided in the ninth inning

The two squads made the finals Tuesday night with dramatic victories Larry Himes slapped a single in the bottom of the 10th to give the Trojans a 4-3 win over a courageous Boston College squad and Littletown Fowler pitched a one-hit shutout as Oklahoma State eliminated Syracuse, 8-0

Tappe now head coach of Cubs

CHICAGO (UPI) — Elvin Tappe smiling like a man who has just landed a steady job, today began an indefinite term as head coach of the Chicago Cubs

Tappe 32, a former Cubs catcher and current member of the eight-man coaching staff, was picked to direct the team "for indefinite period" The Cubs said they were temporarily suspending their system of rotating coaches into the position of "managing coach"

The announcement was made as the Cubs left town to open a series with the Dodgers at Los Angeles A club spokesman stressed it was only a temporary measure and did not indicate the Cubs were ready to junk their novel no-manager plan

"Tappe will continue to direct play on the field for an indefinite period The other coaches will continue the system of rotating among the parent club and the minor league associates," he said

A plaque in memory of the late Ed Green of Nebraska City, a former president of the Men's Bowling Association, was presented to the Bowlarium by Marlin Crum

The next meeting will be in August at which time the association will make out the 1961-62 bowling league schedules.

Dental group denies charge

CHICAGO (UPI) — The American Dental Association has denied a charge by one of its former presidents that its endorsement of a brand of toothpaste was "unteaching" good dental habits

Dr Le Roy S M Miner, Boston former dean of the Harvard Dental School, had urged the dental association to withdraw its endorsement of Crest, a toothpaste manufactured by Proctor and Gamble

Peter Goulding director of the ADA Bureau of Public Information, said Miner's statement "does not change in any respect the scientific evidence on which the Association's Council on Dental Therapeutics made its judgment"

I believe

—Nebraska City needs more paving, another tennis court, fewer know-it-alls and do nothings, an extensive Riverview park improvement program, a larger Community Chest to absorb other fund drives, a sewage disposal plant and school building improvement Many of these things would cost the taxpayers extra loot, but I have as yet to see any community or person for that matter, get anything without paying for it.

Showalter speaks at Wildlife Club

Guest speaker Max D Showalter, conservation officer of the Game Commission, provided the answers to a number of questions in the lively discussion period following the business meeting of the Otoe County Wildlife and Gun Club. The meeting was held Tuesday evening at the Meter Plant.

Discussion centered on the project, "Duck Factory," and whether or not it is considered practical to raise a number of species of wild ducks in our own area on farm ponds provided with the proper inducements.

Announcement was made that dealers in hunting and fishing permits should have forms available for those farmers or ranchers who can provide lodging during the coming season. These permits will be filled out and filed with the Game Commission.

A Dutch lunch was held following the meeting. Two sound films, one an boating and water sports and the other on the San Francisco 49's football team, were shown.

THE ALMANAC

By United Press International

Today is Wednesday, June 14, the 165th day of the year with 200 more in 1961.

The moon is in its new quarter.

The morning stars are Venus, Jupiter and Saturn.

The evening star is Mars.

On this day in history:

In 1775, the U S. Army was founded.

In 1777, the Continental Congress in Philadelphia decided that the Stars and Stripes would be the national flag of the United States.

In 1811, Harriet Beecher Stowe, author of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was born.

In 1898, thousands of American troops sailed from Tampa, Fla., bound for Cuba and the Spanish-American War

In 1940, the Germans entered Paris

Thought for today: George Washington said: "To be prepared for war is one of the most effective means of preserving peace"

U.S. "Nazi" and followers nabbed

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — U.S Nazi "Fuehrer" George Lincoln Rockwell left his nine "storm troopers" in parish (county) jail today and headed for home under a $1,000 bond

Rockwell and the troopers were fined and sentenced Tuesday night on counts of unduly alarming the public and of conspiring to breach the peace by picketing a New Orleans theater in Nazi uniforms.

The 43-year-old former publicity man, printer and Navy flier said he was due in court in his home town, Arlington, Va., on a twice-postponed alimony hearing

Today's Chuckle

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senators who have difficulty being brief were chuckling today over this remark by Sen. Prescott Bush, (R-Conn.), during debate on the housing bill

"Mr President, I can explain this proposal in one minute And, for that purpose, I yield myself three minutes"

Palmyra man is month's soldier

Cpl. Dean A. Hallowell of Palmyra has been named the Soldier of the Month of Nebraska's 356th Regiment, Col. Ralston J. Graham, regimental commander, announced today.

Col. Graham said Hallowell is a member of Company I of Syracuse and is the first man from Co. I to win the award. He lives on a farm in Otoe county near Palmyra and is employed by the Northern Natural Gas Co.

A winner of the Nebraska Reservists Ak-Sar-Ben trophy, Cpl. Hallowell has been a member of the Reserves since January of 1958. He took part in the six-month active duty program offered by the Army Reserve.

He has served as squad leader, platoon sergeant and instructor in Co. I. His company commander is Capt. Stanley Sipple of Nebraska City.

Laotian troops are pushed back

PAKSANE, Laos (UPI)—Royal Laotian army troops, driven from two positions 28 miles north of here Monday, crumpled before a bugle-blowing charge by a thousand rebel infantrymen, reliable sources said today

"It was Korea all over again," an American military adviser said in describing the Chinese Communist style attack in "human wave" assault tactics.

Five American military advisers escaped with the local garrison in the fall of Ban Pak Lat, but two full platoons of government infantrymen were cut off in the rebel capture of nearby Ban Hat Bo
