The PRAYER FOR TODAY FROM The Upper Room

At midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them. (Acts 16:25.)

PRAYER: Grant, O Lord, that we may be so filled with Thy love, and so assured of Thy presence, that whatever our lot, we shall know Thee to be our song and our salvation, through Christ our Savior. Amen.

MERIT PLAN FOR JUDGES

IF Nebraska Bar Association has its way and the public accedes through adoption of a constitutional amendment judges of district and supreme courts will be selected according to merit.

The plan calls for appointment by the Governor as is now the custom only when vacancies are filled since judges are elected at regular elections.

When the judge runs for election after appointment, according to the proposed amendment, he would run on his record or merit. Appointments would be made to begin with from a list submitted by a judicial nominating commission made up of Nebraska attorneys.

Importance of attaining voter approval of the proposed amendment was brought out recently at a special meeting and will get more discussion at the annual meeting of the Nebraska Bar at the meeting on November 1-3

The proposal for Nebraska follows closely what is known as the "Missouri Plan" which has applied that method of selecting judges for a number of years.

SPEAKING OF GOPHERS

I HAVE just read an article about caves. I knew Arkansas and Missouri are full of caverns but it is news that Oklahoma has more than 100, many of them open to the public

Nebraska, the article says, is without any sort of a mine and also seems to be a region without a cave It is not inconceivable that there is a connection between these two seemingly unrelated facts

Actually, though, Nebraska may have caves somewhere We may have some in our own area We haven't found them because there are no surface entrances anywhere to lead to the suspicion that perhaps there IS a cavern or two

A cave or two would be handy There is much talk about our lack of fall-out shelters. A natural cavity would provide plenty of room, provided it is wide and broad enough, to contain a population which because a man over in Russia has gone berserk, must go underground like gophers to protect itself.

As for fall-out shelters there is a vast difference of opinion and, as you may have noticed, a lot of propaganda especially from people who see a chance to garner a quick dollar or two selling facilities which in many cases most likely wouldn't protect even the ants which burrow underground.

If you do build a fall-out shelter—which I read will be taxed as "extra" property—be sure to get the O.K. of the federal authorities before you blow in your hard-earned cash. Don't let some self-serving propagandist separate you from your money. He's as much of an enemy as the chap who says he'll bomb the heck out of us unless we surrender.

THE OTHER DAY COURT ATTACHES SAT UP with a start when the complaint said something about shooting a "duck, to wit, a fur bearing animal"

The case was delayed long enough to amend the complaint by eliminating the unwanted words

THE MAGAZINE Nebraska Engineer says average annual earnings of engineers have increased since 1953 from $6,500 to $9,600

The magazine points out that salaries increase more during the early years, begin to slow down after about 20 years experience

Engineering salaries are highest in industry, followed by those in education and government.

U S.-75 was a solid string of automobiles from Plattsmouth to Nebraska City after the football game at Plattsmouth Wednesday night.

Cars weren't bumper to bumper, but they were pretty close to it. There was no wild driving because there wasn't room for it. An occasional truck slowed the procession but for the most part the line moved along well within the night speed limit for an hour or so after the game

It was the biggest migration of citians to an out of town football game in a long time

WHY not Fred Seaton as the Republican nominee for governor next year? He is one of Nebraska s most distinguished citizens and, as Governor Morrison said, he is "a man of ability"

Former Governor Anderson indicates he won't run if Seaton does Nothing has been heard from John Cooper, the unsuccessful candidate on the GOP ticket last year Charles Thone, the Republican state chairman, is not committed.

Fred Seaton looks like the best possible choice for the Republicans in 1962. The party needs a strong candidate to overcome the stigma of two straight defeats for the top spot while the rest of the state was going down the line for the GOP That situation is one of our most baffling political mysteries

No wonder man's law is receding—he's been taking it on the chin for a long time.
