TWO BIRTHDAYS

ARIZONA celebrated her 50th birthday as a state on February 14, St. Valentine's Day as well as the natal day of the 48th and probably our most lusty state

A feature of the celebration was the 1½-mile walk taken by Bert Fireman, the Bill Aeschbacher of Arizona (secretary of the historical society) who was dressed like the state's first governor, George W. P Hunt, walrus moustache and all Hunt was so popular that he was elected seven times The people of Arizona also expressed their reverence by burying him and his popular wife beneath a pyramidal monument in one of Phoenix' parks.

It was a notable occasion and to me was remindful of the important fact that within five years Nebraska will be celebrating a centennial. Many notable citizens form a committee whose purpose it is to properly commemorate, and it is hoped that the birthday party will be both appropriate and in keeping with the remarkable and worthwhile existence of our own commonwealth.

A beautiful commemorative postage stamp marking Arizona's birthday, designed by newspaper artists, is now on sale to all the philatelists of the land. It is time to be considering what can be devised to mark Nebraska's 100th birthday with the cooperation of the Post Office Department Commemorative stamps, by the way, make money for the Post Office Department. That's one adjunct of government, along with the pamphlet-selling division of the Government Printing Office we should do all in our power to foster. Whenever the federal government shows a profit in ANYTHING at all, it's time for cheers.

SOMEONE recently asked about the ADA, the so-called "Americans for Democratic Action," probably the most "liberal" of all the "ultra liberals" who, among other things, have only contempt for local self-government and sing, as did Rex Tugwell, the one time No 1 Fair Hair of Eleanor Roosevelt, "Let's Make America Over"

The ADA was one of Mr Kennedy's firmest friends in the 1960 campaign. Its head was Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., the Hahvahd product who now is closely allied with the White House and who has been suspect for some time by thoughtful conservatives

The ADA is dedicated to practical destruction of the American free enterprise system Ten years ago the ADA in convention assembled went on record against the enterprise system as we know it, soundly defeating a minority group of delegates who opposed any such radical manifesto.

After the Kennedy victory the ADA loudly proclaimed its aid to the New Frontier. And then, for the first time in eight years, it received a letter of welcome to the White House hailing "liberals as today's minutemen leading the way in the "Democratic revolution." It might be remindful of a hymn sung by Russian party members greeting Mao's gang from Peking!

Recently the ADA advocated elimination of security checks on federal appointees. One of the members in high place actually suggested restoration of Oppenheimer to government service! The ADA asks for American total disarmament, but hasn't hammered much on the Russians doing likewise It would ask China to discuss nuclear matters and many of its members strongly advocate Red China in the U N,

All in all, the ADA, with many members in Nebraska including, at least at one time, a prominent Nebraska editor, is just about as left wingy as one could find in this broad land.

—J.H.S.

I DON'T KNOW WHEN THERE HAS BEEN ANY more interesting a TV program than the tour of the White House conducted by Mrs Kennedy For one thing, there weren't any commercials to break up the show every five minutes For another thing, Mrs Kennedy knew what she was talking about. If people saw and listened to the program, they absorbed a lot of history about the most famous house in the United States

As Mrs Kennedy said, what she has been trying to do must have the approval of other experts because when a place like Mount Vernon (privately owned) will let go of an article, there is assurance that it will be taken care of

Never again will White House antiques be sold on the open market as Mrs. Lincoln, destitute after the assassination of her husband, had to do to keep things going

THERE are other famous houses in the country, and TV tours of them could be interesting and profitable for the viewers

But there is just one Jackie Kennedy, and unless there is a personality before the camera other tours would never have the appeal this one had

Mrs Kennedy is intelligent, articulate, photogenic and gracious She made the show so interesting that it will be repeated in a week or two If you missed it watch for it the second time

ONE highlight of the tour to me was a picture of the state dining room in the time of President Theodore Roosevelt Teddy, the big game hunter, insisted on installing mounted heads of deer, bear, moose and perhaps an elephant or two around the walls Presidents who followed him took them down

Mrs Kennedy praised Teddy Roosevelt for what he did to renovate and improve the White House in the 1902 era. For one thing, he had the office wing built, which took the hangers on out of the president's private living quarters

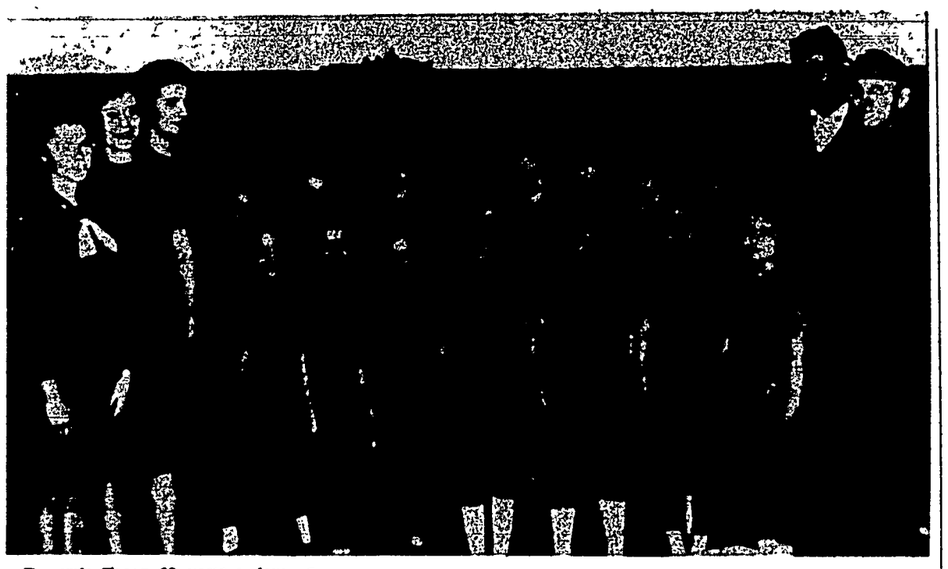

If you have read Lincoln you know that job-seeker and just plain bum haunted the staircase and hallway leading to Lincoln's office even sleeping there at night

Where extreme?

Omaha, Editor, The News-Press In what has the John Birch Society been guilty of extremism?

They advocated impeachment of Earl Warren for his violation of long-established principles of law in contempt of his solemn oath to uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States

However, it was Dan Smoot, one of the best FBI men in the history of that marvelous organization, who prepared the brief of Mr Warren's misdeeds as Chief Justice that justified impeachment.

They have condemned Eisenhower for holding U.S forces at the Elbe to allow the Russians to take Berlin, but it was Kent Cooper, the head of Associated Press, and one of the best newspaper men in history, who publicized the Eisenhower misdeed

The John Birch Society is dedicated to restoration of constitutional government, to exposure of the attempt to replace the Stars and Stripes with the Spider Web emblem of the United Nations, and to restoration of economic sanity and good moral standards to the administration of the Federal government.

For which of these devotions to good citizenship are they extremists?

Lethal weapons found in cells

LINCOLN (UPI)—At least one potentially - lethal weapon was turned up in each cell during a shakedown of the State Reformatory during the past weekend, Superintendent C V Keller said

The contraband articles, together with 1½ truckloads of clothing were either taken out and burned or given to the prison laundry Keller added

Among the articles confiscated wre jagged slivers of glass, lengths of wire, large soap bars and other articles which could be turned into blackjacks, and pieces of metal, including part of a sash weight

The shakedown came as the result of a near-riot Thursday night when the inmates broke a total of 88 windows in the institutions

Keller said that inmates of the cell block involved in the incident are being questioned and that the ringleaders will be transferred to th State Penitentiary

Kennedy finds Poles friendly

VIENNA (UPI) — Edward M (Ted) Kennedy returned from a two day trip to Warsaw today convinced of the Polish peoples' friendliness towards Americans and their devotion to religion

Arriving here on a scheduled Polish airliner for a stop-over between Warsaw and Paris, the President's brother said he was struck by "the genuine and friendly feelings of the Polish people towards me as an individual and towards Americans in general

"Both at the monastery in Czestochowa and churches in Warsaw I was impressed by the numbers and extreme devotion of people," he said

While in Warsaw Kennedy talked with student groups and newspaper people, "trying to feel out the press attitude towards the administration," and with Deputy Foreign Minister Josef Vinieyicz

Beloved Senator Hayden is honored

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Senate displayed its affection today for a modest man and a beloved colleague — 84-year-old Sen Carl Hayden D-Ariz

Exactly 50 years ago Hayden was sworn in as a member of Congress just five days after his native Arizona was admitted to the union as the 48th state

He has been there ever since, serving eight terms in the House and six in the Senate It is a record unmatched by any other man in U.S. history.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, Mont., marked Hayden's 50th anniversary in Congress by sponsoring a resolution pointing to the former Arizona sheriff's "long and distinguished career"

"He has been admired and respected for his outstanding ability, courage and untiring devotion to duty," the resolution read, "and has been loved for his modesty, sincerity and understanding"

The resolution, which drew the bipartisan support of Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen, Ill., expressed the "fervent wish that the Senate and the nation may continue to benefit from the wise and capable guidance and leadership which he has so long and so generously rendered"

Hayden, whose reputation for brevity approaches that of the late president Calvin Coolidge, perhaps wields more influence with less trumpeting than any other man in Washington.

He is chairman of the powerful Senate Appropriations Committee. As president pro tem of the Senate he stands third in line of succession to the presidency—after Vice President Lyndon B Johnson and Speaker John W. McCormack.
