Bill Monbouquette tosses no-hitter

By BOB GINSBURG
United Press International

CHICAGO (UPI) —Bill Monbouquette of the Boston Red Sox, bounced from the American League All-Star squad because of poor pitching, was the biggest star of all today

He took a tip from an old master and matched a performance by a teammate in pitching the third American League no-hitter of the season, a tight 1-0 win over tough Early Wynn and the Chicago White Sox

"I knew it all the way," said the stocky righthander "Nobody on the bench said anything about it"

"I kept thinking about that game with the Yanks this year when I didn't give up a hit for 6 2-3 innings and Tom Tresh got a bunt," Monbouquette said "I knew I had to have a little luck for this one"

Joined Wilson

Earlier this season Red Sox pitcher Earl Wilson threw a no-hitter against the Los Angeles Angels. Ironically, the losing pitcher was Bo Belinsky, the author of the first hitless contest this year.

Meanwhile Monbouquette had been taking his lumps, struggling along with a 8-10 record. He hadn't pitched a complete game since June 9 when he beat Kansas City 9-3 He had been knocked out of four straight games

Catcher Jim Pagliaroni said Monbouquette lacked coordination the last three or four times out.

So "Mombo" — as his teammates call him — went to Boston coach Sal Maglie, who threw a no-hitter against the Philadelphia Phils in 1956 when he was pitching for the Brooklyn Dodgers.

"Maglie helped me a hell of a lot," Monbouquette said, "especially with coordination."

"I was throwing like this," Monbouquette said, demonstrating, "with my arm coming around way ahead of my body But Maglie helped me so that I had my body out front and then the arm whipped around like it should"

Zora Folley wants to test Johansson

DENVER (UPI) — Zora Folley is anxious to resume fighting heavyweights after his narrow victory over light-heavyweight Doug Jones Wednesday night, and the Arizona heavyweight is looking toward Sweden's Ingemar Johansson

Folley's manager Bill Swift revealed that negotiations were well under way for a Folley-Johansson bout in either Sweden or Austria next September.

The 31-year-old Folley, sporting a 16-pound weight advantage, found Jones, the second ranking light-heavyweight contender, almost too much to handle But Folley, who ranks as the third contender for the heavyweight crown, piled up enough points early and finished strong in the 10th round to score a unanimous decision.

The Aftermath

BY LEN HOSKINS

A complete mental let-down paved the way for the Lincoln Gerry's to earn new life in the Area Four Legion finals here, tonight.

With eight errors jarring the Lincoln Optimists, the group which had held an earlier advantage saw it slip away.

The smallest crowd to date attended the game with the Lincoln delegation most in evidence.

Winner of this meet will meet Hastings Saturday night at 8 p.m.

Lincoln Gerry's, trying to save Bob Hergenrader, ace southpaw for tonight's game pulled him from the mound after three innings with a 9-0 lead Pat Gorham, who came on in relief after two previous sparkling relief jobs, was greeted with a bang and Hergenrader was forced to return to the mound to stop the rally at 9-4 After another inning, Gorham then came back to the hill to take complete charge

Optimist stars Les Tyrrell and Mel Hester are both ready for tonight's game and have the full limit of innings

Both Roger Watts Syracuse Legion Midget and Junior nines have earned tickets to the Area Class B meet beginning Sunday at Minden Wins there would earn them a spot in the Class B State tourney at Ord soon

Big Jim Tegelhutter, who has tossed three no-hitters this year, plans to attend the University of Nebraska and play baseball, so we are told The 6-4, 240 pound lad could easily make the football team as far as we are concerned and his height and weight could be used to a great advantage His height could also be used on a basketball floor as he handles himself like a graceful dancer as he moves down the floor, scoring with a hook shot or jump

Coach Oscar Smith begins football season a little early this year The reason he is assistant coach at the South Shrine football team which will meet the North All-Stars on August 18 at Lincoln's Memorial Stadium All proceeds go to the Twin Cities Shrine Hospital.

With Smith will be two familiar faces, Ron Poggemeyer and Bob Sterner, both standouts of last year's unbeaten football squad

Fate seems funny at times. After watching last Saturday's Old Time All-Star game and seeing Dizzy Dean take his second tumble in 25 years you sometimes wonder It was 25 years ago with Dean on the mound when he was hit on the foot by a line drive that was the beginning of the end for the great one-time Cardinal hurler In a replay of the 1937 classic, Dean on the mound again raced to cover first base Dean hit the bag and fell, sprraining an ankle and knee

The Holmes-Legion squad ended its year on a sad note Tuesday night It was the last game for Ron Poggemeyer, Harold Hughes, Kent Neumeister and Dewey Caster All have had some great games this year and will be missed come next spring We hope to hear of great things of these boys as they progress though

Doyle Smith is the new Sports Editor of the Hastings Daily Tribune He replaces Robb Madgett, who moved to city editor of the Tribune Madgett will be sadly missed by the Sportswriters' clan

All Stars warm up for Packer game

CHICAGO (UPI) — The 1962 College All Stars were scheduled for a loosening up session today in their final drill before Friday's showdown scrap with the National-Green Bay Packers

The All Stars worked out on Wednesday night under the lights of Soldier Field site of Friday's game, and head coach Otto Graham stressed passing and punting simply to accustom his players to the illumination The Packers were slated for a similar drill in the arena tonight

Graham whose team was a three touchdown underdog said he hoped to get every All Star into the game, and suggested he might substitute his offensive backfield men by units

He was unhappy about the loss of Syracuse halfback Ernie Davis the Heisman Trophy winner last year, because of illness but said he had moved Baylor's Ron Bull from the flanker back spot to the inside halfback post to replace Davis

Ernie Davis' pro career in doubt

CHICAGO (UPI) Ernie Davis 1961 Heisman Trophy winner and one of the most prized players ever to come out of college football has been stricken with a blood disorder and his professional career was in doubt today

Cleveland had been counting on Davis to join this season with another three-time Syracuse University All-American Jim Brown to give the Browns one of the hardest running tandems in professional football

Davis was hospitalized in suburban Evanston where he had been working out with the College All-Stars in preparation for their game Friday with the National Football League champions Green Bay Packers

Cleveland President Arthur Modell said Davis' condition has been diagnosed as a "blood disorder requiring extended treatment and rest The long range future depends on his response to these treatments"

x-eliminated from tournament

The Lincoln Optimists infield made like a sieve during four fatal innings and helped Lincoln Gerry's force the Area Four Tournament into an extra game with a 15-5 decision Wednesday evening on the Steinhart Park diamond.

Tonight (Thursday) at 8 o'clock the two Capital City clubs, who have each lost one game in the double elimination affair, fight for the right to meet Hastings at 8 p.m Saturday in the state Legion Junior finals at Lincoln's Sherman Field

The Optimists have the advantage with both Mel Hester and Les Tyrrell well rested for mound chores Both also are eligible to hurl the full nine innings under the national 12-innings-in-three-calendar-days pitching rule

Gerry's will probably counter with a conglomeration of Bob Hergenrader (who can work 7 2-3 innings), Rich Schwabauer (three innings), and Pat Gorham (6 2-3)

Optimists' defense collapses

An entire Optimist defensive collapse which included three errors and losing pitcher Steve McMullen's three walks aided the Gerry's in producing five runs in the wild third inning The only two hits in the frame were singles by Gorham and Schwabauer

The Optimists continued their loose play in the fourth when walks to Dick Clemens and Rod Blood a single by Allen LaDuke, a wild pitch and second baseman Greg Kemist's miscue increased the winner's run lead to 9-0

The losers fought back in the bottom of the fourth, however, with four runs, highlighted by doubles by Chuck Turek and Mel Hester Hergenrader who started the contest and worked for three innings had to relieve Gorham on the mound with two outs "Hergie" forced lefty Gene Graff to ground out to first on the first pitch

Hergenrader then hurled to the sixth frame when Gorham again returned to the mound From then on Gorham finished the game with the type of relief performances he has displayed two other times in the tourney He allowed only one hit, struck out three, and walked none

LaDuke Gerry's third baseman and Turek Optimist shortstop turned in defensive gems during the contest

TURNPIKES, U.S.A — Some day, to travel through Nebraska the fastest way will be on the interstate, an ingenious system of divided highways, designed specifically for safe, fast traveling at a comfor able pace

That highway won't cost you a penny when you hop on it nor will you be expected to help foot the bill when you get off the Nebraska section.

But, in Ohio, Indiana, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York, you pay, and podner, you pay You pay even more if you have a flat tire and abide by the rules, tie a hankerchief on the door handle of your car, raise the hood and wait for the special super-duper highway maintenance people to come along.

But, if you are going to take a trip and you want to travel — I said travel, not look over historic spots or other tourist attractions— then the only way to travel is on the big divided highways The only stops necessary are for buying petrol and paying tolls

-:- -:- -:-

We often think of Nebraska as being a small state — certainly population-wise — but when you compare its cross country trip with Indiana, for example, we live in mighty big state We don't give much thought of a trip to Hastings, but when you consider the distance across Indiana on the toll highway is 140 miles, then you know Nebraska covers a lot of ground Indiana toll is $2 60.

At Joliet, Ill, a state which provides textbooks for school children, but not the writing pads, there are on sale in the school supply departments of stores, tablets with these printed words "Joliet Public School Tablet Approved for use in the public schools by the Board of School Inspectors" Close examination revealed the tablets were genuine tablets, the same type which George Rowe stocks

-:- -:- -:-

On the Ohio turnpike we saw several convoys of Guardsmen either coming or going to summer camp Sure brought back memories to see troops moving over major highways

Speed limit on the Indiana toll road is 70 mph, but on most others the speed day or night is 65 mph Amusing thing about the speed law is that no one pays any attention to it

Like good Nebraska safety conscious motorists — four safety belts included for the family — we stayed with the 65 speed .... for about 10 minutes. Majority of the motorists travel 70 to 75 and the 10 per cent 85 to 90

-:- -:- -:-

Of all the turnpikes, expressways, interstates and toll roads on the 1,458 trip from Clyde Stoll's station to an apartment house on Manhattan Island, the best is the New Jersey toll road. The most picturesque bridge is the Delaware

Speed limit on the New Jersey six and sometimes eight lanes is 65 mph, with some changes.

Not speaking from experience, but only as an observer, I'll clue you don't try the hotrodding on the N-J road Big beautiful signs say, "Speeders lose licenses" And the state police chase the hotrodders in Chryslers

And away we go . in our Rambler six

$626,025 allocated for state airports
