The buck ends here . . . .

By Ivan D.E.B.

Understand Doc Baker and Archie Moore are in the same class neither ducked in time Phil Niemann sez he'll take on Haystack, the wrestler, in the next match Chamber Manager Gary Blakeman has quit smoking cigarets so he's smoking a pipe and singing, "All I want for Christmas is an unspotted lung"

Ed Cole, city park superintendent, has dressed up Steinhart park with Christmas decorations and lighting Young'ns who want to be photographed with "Santa" may do so at his headquarters in the former Mode-O-Day building .. that's next to Merritt Cleaners, so Mom and Pop can be sure that when Junior finishes with his Christmas requests they'll be cleaned Eddie Gerber, parttime courthouse custodian and fulltime partisan river developer-upper, pulled a fuse in the courthouse to repair a light switch on a vault in the basement and cut off the juice to the treasurer's and assessor's offices

NOTICE — Any "Mr Peebee" who would like to match his wife with the gal wrestlers next week should contact John Wesley Smull, Jaycee president . County Extension officials are cooperating with other departments in an effort to get a pilot project to converting farm land to recreation .... which just means that before the project becomes a reality there'll be a lot of pile-it here and pile-it there palaver

I like Christmas eve — It's the only time my kids will go to bed without fussing, then stay in bed giggling and trying to peek around corners to see what's going on in the living room It's also the time when the Missus and I work an hour and a half after reading instructions on putting together a toy that is supposed to require "only 30 minutes of your time" . It's also the only time our family stays up until wee hours of the night laying out those little gifts and then gets up long before the crack of dawn to play sleepy-eyed with something, 'Oh, Oh! Lookit what we have here '

The most unprogressive individual I know is the guy who advertises his merchandise for weeks, then when you stop in to say hello and ask, "what's new?" he replies, "nothing much" .

The Jaycees re-built a shelter on the ice skating grounds north of the armory for the winter Judge George Stanley, park board chairman, who has seen to it the ground is readied for ice skating said the shelter will get a coat of paint

Federal control of tobacco urged

BOSTON (UPI)—A lung specialist called Wednesday night for federal laws to control tobacco traffic, including prohibition of cigarette vending machines, in an attempt to decrease lung cancer

Dr Richard H Overholt director of the Overholt Thoracic Clinic of Boston, told the 69th annual dinner-meeting of the New England Baptist Hospital, that "although the salvage rate for lung cancer victims is being edged gradually upward, control by prevention can be far more effective

"The jurisdiction of traffic in tobacco should be placed under the pure food and drug laws," he said

Noting that one out of every 10 heavy smokers and one out of every 37 smokers develops lung cancer, compared to one in every 275 non-smokers, Overholt called for an extensive program of education to warn youths and others against the dangers of tobacco usage

He also urged national legislation to control tobacco traffic

"Since the human lung acts as a filter and cannot be changed it is important that we guard this precious organ This is an individual problem that can best be solved by education

"Inasmuch as drug addiction habit patterns and social relationships are all involved the problem of discontinuance is not simple Effective reduction in tobacco usage can best be brought about by concentration in specific areas," he said

Overholt urged "persons of influence," teachers ministers priests, doctors, nurses, athletic directors, sportsmen and movie and television stars to set a good example

"Also persons who control the news media should be fully informed of the impact of tobacco advertising upon the health and happiness of the people of the world.

"Cigarette vending machines should be prohibited since sale to minors should be controlled," he said

"And most important of all, there should be far-reaching medical programs for young people who have not yet acquired the habit," Overholt said

Autos bump — Mrs Velda W Oliver told police she pulled over as far as she could on the one-way street on Third corso between Ninth and Tenth but that a car coming from the other direction hit her bumper

Artist looks at spots for murals

LINCOLN (UPI)— New York artist James Penny last week toured Nebraska's statehouse where he has been employed to cover three presently barren walls with murals

Penney, Clinton, N Y, was commissioned to paint the murals, which will depict Nebraska's pioneer days, by the Capitol Mural Commission for $15,000

Penney was selected over six other artists who submitted sketches to the commission

"I am looking forward to the job," Penney said, "with the interest of an artist who has just been informed his first painting has been sold "

Penney said he will do the major portion of his painting of the murals in his Clinton studios and then will have the nearly finished product shipped to Nebraska "After they are in place, I will put the finishing touches to them," he said.

The murals will be located directly above and near the capitol's main north entrance One will portray a homesteader's campfire, another a pioneer plowing a field and the third, pioneers raising a house

Now the time to mail cards

"Right now is the time to start your Christmas cards and gifts on their way," Postmaster Nellie Uerkvitz said today

At the Nebraska City post office, "it is Christmas every day from now on "

"By getting into action now, a lot of headaches can be avoided when the full Christmas rush begins," she said

Suggestions to patrons include properly wrapped packages, check with the post office on rates for unusual sized or bulk mailings, put an addressed label inside packages and use four cent stamps so cards will be delivered quicker and will be forwarded or returned.

Another suggestion is to use "ALL FOR LOCAL DELIVERY" and "ALL FOR OUT OF TOWN DELIVERY" free labels from the post office

"You can sort your cards into two bundles with the addresses all facing one way, thus expediting delivery," she said

Christmas cards and gifts for most distant points should be mailed first, preferable well before December 10 Those for nearby points should be mailed by December 15 or at least a week before Christmas
