Racing champion collecting points

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind (UPI) — Rodger Ward, two-time winner of the Indianapolis 500-mile auto race, may have to confine all his driving to the race track if a driver's license hearing goes against him

Deputy Commissioner Richard Weaver of the Indiana Bureau of Motor Vehicles said Ward's conviction Wednesday for speeding 45 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone gave him 12 penalty points for the past four months

A driver who accumulates 12 points in a one-year period gets a letter ordering him to appear at the statehouse to show cause why his driving license should not be suspended

American League Roundup
By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Nelson Fox who already owns eight major league records, will soon achieve another statistical goal that will place him among the greatest second basemen in baseball history

The combative little Chicago White Sox second baseman — who just might be the only fellow in the American League who hasn't conceded to the New York Yankees need only three more hits to reach 2 500 for his career That's a total reached by only five second basemen — all hall of famers — Eddie Collins, Nap Lajoie, Frankie Frisch, Charlie Gehringer and Rogers Hornsby

Fox knocked in three runs with two singles and scored the White Sox' fourth run of the game Thursday in a 4-3 victory over the Detroit Tigers The win enabled the second-place White Sox to move within eight games of the Yankees, whose six-game winning streak was ended by a 5-0 loss to the Los Angeles Angels.

The Cleveland Indians edged the Minnesota Twins, 3-2, the Kansas City Athletics defeated the Boston Red Sox, 2-0, and the Baltimore Orioles downed the Washington Senators, 4-2, in other American League games.

Oldest bridge on river to go

LEAVENWORTH, Kan. (UPI)—For $98,600 the Jarvis Construction Co of Salina, Kan., apparently gets the honor of tearing down the oldest existing bridge spanning the Missouri River.

The U S Army Corps of Engineers said Thursday the Jarvis company was the apparent low bidder for the destruction job. The company's offer was apparent low among bids ranging up to $336,000

The bridge, considered quite an engineering accomplishment when it was completed in 1872, has a 1,516-foot span Much of the metal used in it, which will go to the successful contractor, was imported from Holland

The bridge is adjacent to a federal prison farm here It became outmoded when a new toll bridge, which carries traffic across the river at a point two miles downstream, was constructed

Pies lack cherries —and now what?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Officials of the food and drug administration (FDA) are inclined to agree with Sen. Philip Hart, R-Mich., about the lack of cherries in frozen cherry pies

But they don't know what to do about it.

Hart contended recently that pictures on the packages of the frozen pastry showing luetous wedges of pie crammed with cherries were a snare and delusion

Thomas Bellis of FDA's food standards division suggested weight of the fruit might be the best standard for assuring the proper proportion of cherries

The manhunt—

The manhunt for Charles Graham, Nebraska City, wanted in connection with break-ins, was not a glorified chase, the type shown on TV

Graham was pursued from noon west of Plattsmouth to late Saturday where he was found in the Missouri river near Rock Bluff. He admitted Pacific Junction, Ia., and Peru, Nebr., break-ins, signed a waiver of extradition and was locked in the Mills county, Ia., jail

-:- -:- -:-

It was a hot, sticky Saturday afternoon, the day officers sought the man The temperature was in the middle 90s

Officers patroled dusty roads drossed in full uniforms and weighted down with heavy leather belts, extra cartridges, .38 caliber revolvers and 12 gauge shotguns.

The man they sought took a shotgun loaded with comparable shot from the Plattsmouth police chief It was not known whether the wanted man had other weapons

-:- -:- -:-

The heat of the day made the officers sweat until the perspiration ran off their faces and down their backs, soaking their shirts The dust of the roads added to the discomfort by caking on their hot, sticky shirts

For many of the officers, it had been a long time between meals Many had started the day shortly after 3 a m, and with exception of perhaps getting a sandwich at a cafe, they did not get their meals until after dark Saturday night.

The dust on the river bottom roads was like powder and when meeting a car, the visibility we nil There was no traffic direction The rule was to get to a certain place and get there fast.

At the scene, officers patroled roads and blocked the area near the Rock Bluff elevator while two airplanes flew within spittin' distance of the ground A bloodhound was summoned from Bellevue

The one man each of the officers sought was armed with a shotgun Whether he would use it, no one knew The officers knew about the gun and when they finally got their man in the Missouri river, they weren't kidding when they told him to put up his hands.

The wanted man told officers he was in water over his head and he could only hold up one hand at a time without going under water Regardless, he held up both hands, was handcuffed while still in the water and taken to shore.

There was a lot of detail work yet to do, but for most of the officers, it was all over Some officers were still on duty and continued on their routes

Others were through for the day and headed for home, a bath and a meal

And for a couple others, they rushed home cleaned up and attended a wedding, a happy conclusion for a hot, dusty day.

No protection for third party

LINCOLN (UPI)—The Nebraska Supreme Court held today a third party who takes over a conditional sales contract from another party is not entitled to protection under the state's usury law.

The court made this decision in overruling a Lancaster District Court case involving the purchase of a house trailer from Burnett's Trailer Sales of Lincoln.

The trial court had entered a judgment in favor of the original plaintiff in the case, Mary Alice Rader, who had taken over a contract from the original purchasers of the trailer

The high court reversed the district court ruling and held in favor of the operators of the trailer sales firm, Lincolnites Earl M. Burnett Sr and Earl M Burnett Jr

The decision was the third within a month on a time-sales contract but did not involve any question about the constitutionality of laws dealing with time-sales

Earlier Decision

An earlier decision holding the 1959 Installment Sales Act invalid was one which has posed the possibility of a special session of the state legislature to resolve questions about the validity of various interest rates for different financial institutions

In its latest ruling, the court held that voiding the Radar contract "will in no way benefit the original borrower, or in any way protect those intended to be protected by the law We see no reason to depart from the law established by the import of our previous decisions and hold that a cause of action on a usurious contract is not assignable to a stranger to the transaction"

Marvel points to college salaries

By United Press International

State Sen Richard Marvel said today that he was directed by the budget committee to point out faculty salary discrepancies to the state normal board

Board member Carl Spelts said Thursday at a board meeting in Lincoln that "It is not the place of the budget committee to tell college presidents how much to pay faculty members"

Marvel said at Hastings that since the legislature is the only state body with the legal power to appropriate money, "we thought it only fair to send the institutions letters showing the monetary breakdown and the methods used by the budget committee in arriving at its final appropriation figures"

The budget committee, he said, noted in the letter to the Normal Board the unequal salaries given to faculty members of the same rank in the four normal schools, and "we stated in the letter that it should be corrected"

Henry Freed, Chadron, chairman of the Normal Board, said today from his home, "I don't agree with Mr Spelt's unfortunate statement."

Freed said that the budget committee was hindered in appropriating money by the lack of a broadened tax base "They gave us what they saw fit, and the board should not bite the hand that feeds it."

Bread Schedule

In explaining the reason for the unequal salaries, Freed said the normal board salary schedule is too broad For instance, he said, it allows the president at Kearney State to give a professor a higher salary than a professor of the same rank at Wayne.

"In some cases," Freed said, "there is as much as a $2,400 difference in salary for persons holding the same title"

He said that higher salaries seem to go to faculty members at the two largest normal schools —Kearney State and Wayne State

"It is the general consensus of the board that this is all right," Freed said, but, I will fight it as long as I am a member"

Cost of living leaps to high

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The nation's living costs jumped to a new all-time high in June and sliced four cents off the buying power of a $10 bill, the Labor Department reported today

The department said its consumer price index increased by four-tenths of 1 per cent last month—the biggest one month increase in nine months

Higher prices for sugar, cigarettes and increased real estate and sales taxes pushed up the index to 106 6 of average 1957-59 prices

This means it took $10 66 to buy the same goods and services that cost $10 about five years ago

Arnold Chase price expert for the Labor Department, said chances are that living costs will climb again in July to achieve another record peak

But he said the increases reflect past inflationary pressures rather than present or future inflationary dangers
