Weekend TV Sports Guide

The New York Jets, leaders in the Eastern Division, will engage the Miami Dolphins in an American Football League game to be colorcast nationally by the NBC Television Network Sunday Oct. 22, beginning at 2:30 p.m.

In Kansas City, the Houston Oilers will take on the AFL champions Chiefs at Municipal Stadium beginning at 12 noon.

New York with a 3-1-1 mark is currently heading the Eastern division with Houston 2-2-1 and Boston 2-3-1 close behind followed by Buffalo 2-4-0 and Miami 1-4-0.

In the west, unbeaten San Diego is 4-0-1, with Oakland 4-1-0 then Kansas City 3-2 and Denver 1-5-0 last.

Meanwhile the National Football League play Sunday will find Chicago's Bears traveling to Cleveland to meet the LeRoy Kelley led Browns, also at 12 noon, Channel 6.

Saturday's NCAA Game of the Week will find Texas at Arkansas with the game played at Little Rock beginning at 2 p.m. on Channel 7.

Other weekend sports finds the Wide World of Sports, bowling and Roller Derby. See the complete schedules elsewhere in this section.

The Bard Draws In Oregon

ASHLAND, Ore. (UPI) — A total of 59,354 persons attended the 51-night run of the Oregon Shakespearean Festival here this year.

The figures topped last year's record by 769. The season saw 38 capacity audiences for the four plays.

DISLIKE FOR COFFEE

Q. I have heard that an early sign of pregnancy is the development of a dislike for coffee. Is this true?

A. It may be true Several years ago an obstetrician questioned several hundred pregnant women and found that more than half had developed a dislike for the odor or taste of coffee early in pregnancy. "Instant" coffees were better tolerated than boiled or percolated coffee.

GOAT'S MILK

Q. Has goat's milk any advantages over cow's milk for healthy babies?

A. No, although goat's milk is sometimes prescribed for children or adults who are allergic to cow's milk. Goat's milk is similar in composition to cow's milk with one exception — the vitamin B-12 content of goat's milk is much lower than that of cow's milk.

We have but one policy — to provide drugs of the highest quality at reasonable prices.

Guitar Survives Ups and Downs of Popularity

CHICAGO (UPI) — Musical fads come and go, but the guitar has survived long periods of obscurity and social disdain

In some form, the guitar has been around since 3,000 B C Martin Luther played the guitar. Classic composers such as Bach and Handel composed music with it. Beethoven referred to the guitar as "a miniature orchestra itself"

Members of the European upper class in the 17th Century were expected to learn to play the guitar.

History credits an Englishman named Kirkman, a piano manufacturer, with the guitar's downfall.

When piano sales sagged, Kirkman bought cheap guitars and gave them to the lowest segments of society He is said to have promoted a few bawdy songs, too.

Before long guitar-strumming troubadors, singing colrful but unsavory songs, could be heard throughout England. The guitar was soon downgraded by the upper class, and Kirkman's piano business picked up.

In 1833, a German whose family had been making guitars for years, immigrated to America and brought the instrument with him.

In a century of pioneers and settlers, the guitar became accepted as the instrument of American folk music The uneducated, living in the mountains, learned of history-making events through folk songs accompanied by guitar.

During the 1920's jazz discovered the instrument. Later motion picture cowboys rode off in the sunset — strumming guitars.

With the advent of Elvis Presley and rock 'n roll in the 1950's, it has gained new popularity among teen-agers

Today with electronic folk rock, the guitar is the world's second most popular instrument.

First is the piano. Kirkman would like that.

Grand Ole Opry: The Quip Stuck

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) —The Grand Ole Opry, the oldest continuous show in the history of American broadcasting, got its name quite by accident.

The show went on the air at WSM in 1925 as the "Barn Dance." One of the infant broadcasts followed a network production of music from the Grand Opera in New York.

Announcer George D. Hay went to the microphone when the high brow music was over and said:

"For the past hour we have been listening to music taken largely from grand opera, but from now on we will present the Grand Ole Opry."

The name stuck.

From Wicked To Shameless

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—"The Shameless Virgin" will complete Elke Sommer's two-picture deal with Edward Small Productions, the first being "The Wicked Dreams of Paula Schultz"

Brando-Boone Co-Star

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Marlon Brando and Richard Boone are the co-stars in Universal's new suspense thriller, "The Night of the Following Day" which will be made in English and French, filming in Paris.

The buck Ends here . . . .

By Ivan D. E. Beaumont

The most famous words in Nebrask. City: "How much you wanna bet?"

+ + + + +

The Rev. John Glaves, a priest at St. Joseph's and biology teacher (he calls himself a lecturer) at Nebraska City Lourdes, said long hair and mini-mini skirts are not uncommon in London.

"In fact," he told Optimists the other day, "most men in London wear their hair two to three times longer that we do and they cut it off straight on the back of the neck."

+ + + + +

Well, after Father Glaves said that, I figured the only reason those Britishers don't get short haircuts is because they aren't getting "clipped" like we at home.

+ + + + +

If we really want to blame someone for the dress of our young people, let's push the blame across the "pond" and start with the Beatles.

I'm not in the crowd. . . the only regret I have is that I never owned a piece of them.

+ + + + +

The London electric power failure will have a noticeable effect on the population if the British and Americans are anything alike.

The July, 1968, headline will read:

"Blackout Blamed for Baby Boom. . .and baby, we're not kidding."

Up on the North 40

The Weldon and Boice homes are under construction. . .let's see that adds one more doctor (mebbe we ought to start a clinic) and an ESU 4 educational specialist.

Further north on Fitzekam's Plateau, builders are hammering away at a spacious and attractive home for the Carl Fitzekams.

+ + + + +

Fella told me the other day the reason Lourdes Coach Troy Lyon has a winning team is because he has 125 assistant coaches—Moms and Dads.

+ + + + +

The Russians landed the first space vehicle on the planet Venus and first reports showed the surface temperature ranging from 115 to 536 degrees Fahrenheit.

The truth is, my little Atwaterkent radio monitored the report; "Man, it's Red hot here."

+ + + + +

A Nebraska City woman accompanied an 80-year old couple to a hotel and released a few choice words in events that followed.

The clerk, apparently new on the job, fumbled about a bit and asked "do they want a private bath?"

The impatient Nebraska Citian replied:

"No, they're just going to make mad, passionate love and check out."

Lands Top Role

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—German star Eva Renzi landed a top role with George Peppard in "House of Cards."

Patsy Kelly For 'Baby'

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Oldtime comedienne Patsy Kelly will join Mia Farrow in a supporting role in Paramount's "Rosemary's Baby"

Backus in 'Lights'

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Comedian Jim Backus has been added to the new Doris Day picture. "Where Were You When the Lights Went Out?"
