The buck Ends here . . . .

By Ivan D.E. Beaumont

Best wished to Richard Hoch on his new assignment as assistant counsel to Governor Tiemann.

Dick has been practicing law in Nebraska City for five years and he and his fine family have made many friends.

We'll miss Dick on the streets and in the courthouse as Otoe county attorney, but we hope to see him occasionally as he commutes daily to Lincoln.

Wonder, since he will be in the statehouse and next to the roads department, if a different sign could be placed at the edge of Cook, rather than the one that used to be there, that read: "Bad bump" . . . . must ask the Governor's aide about that some time.

If you think that time is not slipping by, than podner, take a gander across the river to neighboring Shenandoah. Understand the Christmas lights are up and ready to go.

Nebraska City is going to have a whing-ding of a retail promotion this year. Not only will there be a new car giveaway, but there will be cash.

You've got to admit . . . with promotions like that . . . it really does "pay" to shop in Nebraska City.

Congratulations to Carol Hutchens, daughter of Mr and Mrs John Hutchens, who was recognized recently at Creighton University for her perfect grade average of 4.0.

Carol's parents attribute much of her energies to the Greater Science Fair held in Nebraska City. That's a fine compliment and much appreciated by those hard-working volunteers.

The science fair plans are well under way for this spring. Sister Jean Mark is the chairman. The fair will be April 11-12.

If anyone had told me there was a football contest at Hayward park the other night when the bottom of the rain barrel dropped out, I'd told them to flush whatever it was down the drain.

But there they were, all those boys, competing in the Clemmy Holmes punt, pass and kick contest. If that's any indication, the crop of new football stars is going to be rugged.

The conduct of the Pioneers football squad at Beatrice Friday night was a compliment to Nebraska City despite the 13-0 loss to the opponents.

The fans were not so gracious They didn't like some of the penalties and did they howl.

The boys played one of their finest games this season. And if anyone had doubts about that, any Beatrice fan (or perhaps the Beatrice boys themselves) would tell you that the Orangeman met their match.

The Beatrice boy that caught my eye was the high-stepping Chuck Jones, No. 31, the 175-pound junior back.

We were cruising down the highway heading for home when a bus roared and smoked by us. About the time he got back in the right lane, he came upon the railroad tracks and had to stop. . . . and we were glad the brakes were working.

Peru group tours sanitation plant

Vern Livingston, manager of the Nebraska City Utilities, showed slides and talked on the Nebraska City sewage disposal plant at the Tuesday night meeting of the Peru branch of the American Association of University Women at the home of Mrs Livingston in Nebraska City.

Mr Livingston took the group on a tour of the sanitation department plant with Joe Thissen, superintendent of the plant assisting. Mr Livingston told of the need for graduate sanitary engineers.

The group's study topic for the year is "This Beleaguered Earth—Can Man Survive?" The group decided to see what cities are doing to reduce air, river or water and land pollution.

Senator Fern Orme will be the speaker for the March 10 meeting. Her subject is "Looking Ahead at Legislation."

The Omaha branch of the American Association of University Women will sponsor a program on November 14 at Joslyn at which time Lillian Gish will show a special movie which she has prepared from old films of many actors and actresses of the past. The Peru branch has been invited to attend.

Frieda Rowoldt, Alma Ashley and Lillian Schottenhamel were appointed to serve on the by-laws committee.

Pam Holding was appointed area representative for community problems.

Laurine Anderson, Kay Cattle and Lillian Schottenhamel attended the October workshop in Norfolk.

The members will sell the Association cook books as a project.

The next meeting will be November 11 at the home of Esther Ord Wells in Auburn.

"AN INTERESTING LETTER"

SEOUL, Korea, Editor, The News-Press: You may be surprised receiving this letter from a completely stranger. Would you pardon me with my impoliteness? First of all, I introduce myself. My name is Chongha Lee, aged 24 years, and now in Hanyang university.

I'm very eager to work for young generation by myself. So I set up union pen pal for youth with free of charges. Most of them are 14-20 years old. Many young peoples registered my club and now a day about 3,500 members.

They have various kinds of hobby — stamps, coins, postcards, music, reading and learning English.

Pen pal is easiest for our younsters to start writing in English and their favorite hobby may be starting point for an enriching exchange of ideas and experience with someone in foreign land.

If you contribute for me in small column of your newspaper we can receive many interesting letter and will be glad to thank you. I hope hear from you soon.
